

Dementia in the German and Danish Care Sector

29th of March 2017

10:00 – 15:30

Dementia in the German and Danish Care Sector

29th of March 2017

Program

The event will be in English.

- 10:00      The city of Flensburg and Flensburg University of Applied Sciences welcome you
By Swetlana Krätzschmar, Mayor of Flensburg and Prof. Dr. Bosco Lehr, Director of the Institute for eHealth and Management in Health Care, Lead Partner, Flensburg University of Applied Sciences.
- 10:15      Dementia from a medical point of view
Get an insight into the early symptoms and early diagnosis of dementia.
By Dr. Klaus Weil, Specialist and Chief Physician for Internal Medicine, Geriatric Medicine and Rehabilitation at “Malteser Krankenhaus St. Franziskus-Hospital”
- 10:30      Research within Demantec - status quo and forecast
Learn more about previous findings of the third work package as well as planned activities.
By Lynn Jacken and Julia Riesch, Research Assistants within in the Demantec Project, Lead Partner, Flensburg University of Applied Sciences.
- 10:45      The German Care Insurance - News in 2017
Since 1st January 2017, fundamental changes in the German care insurance have been redefined and the need for long-term care has been redefined. What does this mean for the insured?
By Sven Peetz, Head of Division at the vdek-Landesvertretung Schleswig-Holstein.
- 11:00      The journey of People suffering from dementia in Denmark
What kinds of support, information and health aids can persons with dementia receive in the Danish care sector? How is the support organized and how can technologies support persons with dementia during the hospital stay?
By Vindiya Rasmussen, dementia coordinator, caregiver and cand.scient.san.publ
- 11:15      Producing synergies between the network partners and Demantec
Demantec network partners introduce themselves – they represent different companies, research facilities and municipalities. They would like to show you collaboration and cooperation possibilities.
- 11:45      Networking and lunch
Bring your business card and get to know the project and network partners of Demantec whilst enjoying your lunch.

- 13:00      Mobility and dementia in outpatient care
Get to know practical examples from the work routine of the DRK-Schwesternschaft Elsa Brändström e.V.

By Sabine Esel, Head of Outpatient Care, DRK-Schwesternschaft Elsa Brändström e. V.
- 13:20      A Possibility of Combining the Products Life Manager and Intelligent Care
Learn more about how two innovative technologies combined can increase the quality of life for persons with dementia.

By Lars Jessen, CEO of Life-Partners A/S and Henrik Klode, CEO, ANYgroup ApS.
- 13:40      Wrap up and chat about future developments and events within the framework of Demantec

By Prof. Dr. Thomas Severin, Vice President, Lead Partner, Flensburg University of Applied Sciences.
- 14:00      Conclusion of the main event
After the event, feel free to network further with the project partners and network partners of Demantec whilst enjoying a cup of coffee.

14:30 - 15:30: Side events

- Option 1:      Field trip to the dementia specified ward Silvia
Experience a guided tour and get background information at the Malteser St. Franziskus-Hospital. The guided tour takes place parallel to the end of the event. The number of participants is limited.

Field trip address: Malteser Krankenhaus St. Franziskus-Hospital, Waldstraße 17, 24939 Flensburg
- Option 2:      Market Place and informal business meetings
Explore new technology related to dementia and elderly care. Expand your network and meet the Demantec partners and network partners in a market place.